*Offer valid on any Amana® brand single-phase residential air conditioner, heat pump, gas furnace, packaged units or air handler listed above. All other Amana Brand equipment is subject to standard extended warranty pricing. Equipment must be installed in a single-family, owner-occupied residential home. See your local distributor for complete list of qualifying equipment. Participating dealer/contractors must be registered and approved to offer AsureSM extended service contracts. Claims for sales and installation dates that are before or after the promotional dates will not be honored. Valid only at participating distributors. Offer not valid on previously purchased equipment. No rainchecks. Additional restrictions may apply. Ask for complete details. Offer not valid in Oklahoma. In Florida, the Distributor may not sell the Service Agreement to the Dealer for less than Distributor's cost per unit, and the dealer may not sell the Service Agreement to the homeowner for less than the dealer's cost per unit. Offer may be changed or cancelled without advance notice. Void where prohibited by law. Offer valid 05/01/13 through 12/31/13. You must enter into Service Bench all extended service plan sales that qualify for the promotion by January 15, 2014.
